THE NEW YORK CITIZEN.

HEAVY PREMIUMS.

$600 REWARD FOR PRIVATE ENERGY.

THE PROPRIETORS OF THE NEW YORK CITIZEN have determined to make it the popular exponent of American Literature, Art and Society, and with the view of promoting this object they have decided to offer the following terms for subscription lists. They will pay on May 1, 1868, to any person sending them the largest number of new subscribers (not less than one hundred) the sum of $250.

For the next largest number of new subscribers (not less than fifty) sent by any person, they will pay $150.

For the next largest number of new subscribers (not less than forty) sent by any person, they will pay $100.

For the next largest number of new subscribers (not less than thirty) sent, they will pay $75.

And for the next largest number of new subscribers (not less than ten) sent, they will pay $25.

To every person sending any number of new subscribers, and who does not receive either of the above rewards, we will pay TWENTY PER CENT of the amount sent.

Money forwarded for the subscriptions must be sent at the risk of the parties, unless sent by Post Office orders.

THE NEW YORK CITIZEN is a first class Family Paper, handsomely printed on fine white paper, and filled with choice and entertaing Literature, by the best authors, including the songs and sketches of the universally popular

"MILES O'REILLY,"

Author of the well known Poem

"BLACK LOYALTY,"

THE CITIZEN is now publishing the

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Saturday, February 8, 1868.

THE issues between the parties in North Carolina have been clearly made up. There can be neither doubt nor cavil in regard to the positions they respectively occupy. The people have, therefore, before them for consideration the principles enunciated by those who ask their endorsement and support.—Through its resolutions, the declarations of its leaders and its organ, the Republican or Radical party in North Carolina stands squarely upon the doctrine that the negro is entitled to the ballot, as a matter of right and of policy; and that a denial of its exercise would be an act of injustice and wrong to him and retard the material advancement of the State. Absolute civil and political equality is the claim made by him and his white allies for him. Contending for this dogma, the Republican party is perfecting its organization, and will speedily place in nomination its candidates for office.

The white men of North Carolina—Democrats and Conservatives—have spoken on this most important question in a manner which admits of neither doubt nor equivocation. By resolution and otherwise, they have solemnly declared their belief in the superiority of their race; and have announced their determination to resist the admission of the negro to the political privileges of the government, by all peaceful and legitimate means. Believing that it was never the purpose of the founders of the government to grant to an inferior race equal privileges with their own, they have organized to defeat any proposition looking to that end. Their preliminary meeting was such "a gathering of the clans" as has not been witnessed in North Carolina in many years; and the spirit, which animated the body, was an invincible determination to preserve their honor, their traditions and their customs sacred and inviolate.

Other matters may be brought into controversy during the progress of the campaign. We beg the people not to forget that they can be postponed for future consideration and action, but that this question of negro equality, and by force of circumstance in certain localities, negro equality, must be met now and decided in our favor, or else we may transmit to those who are to come after us, a heritage of suffering and shame. There should be no evasion of the issue. Let it be fairly, earnestly and honestly presented to the people, and we have yet sufficient confidence in the integrity of North Carolinians to believe that it will be indignantly defeated.

THE white men of North Carolina must get to work immediately. If we expect to win in the campaign, upon which we have entered, we must begin to labor now and labor always, until we have conducted it to a brilliant conclusion. The want of organization and consultation; the distracting counsel given by the press, and the indifference and apathy manifested by those who had been leaders in our political affairs led to our defeat in November, and entailed upon the people of the State the expense and annoyance attending the session of the so-called Convention.

The first and second of these causes no longer exist. The third need have no being. Our policy has been definitely determined, but it were better that we had never begun, than that we should fail to go vigorously to work to put our theory into practice.

Our public men failed in their duty during the last election. The people earnestly looked to them for counsel and guidance. They looked in vain. He who shrinks in the canvass which approaches, will lose all hold upon the confidence of the people, and will be deservedly censured and despised. Every man, however humble, must labor for the promotion of the cause. Especially is this expected of those whom the people have heretofore honored. Let there then be no failure on the part of any of our citizens. In this crisis, timidity sinks into cowardice and carelessness becomes crime.

THE Convention yesterday was engaged in the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Executive Department. Amendments offered requiring the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor to have been citizens of the United States for twenty and of North Carolina for five years; and to be able to read and write were defeated by a strict party vote.

An amendment offered by Dr. Holt, of Orange, requiring a freehold of the value of $2,000, was also defeated.

An amendment offered by Capt. Durham, as an additional section, providing "that no person of African descent, or of mixed blood, shall be eligible to the office of Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, or any other Executive office," was also defeated by vote of 86 to 11.

Our readers will find the vote in the report of the proceedings. Comment on the action is unnecessary. Let the facts be put before the people.

The Great Spectacular Farce!—The Black Crooks and White Fawners.

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

[TWENTY-FIRST DAY.]

FRIDAY, Feb. 7, 1868.

(The performers announced to take part in this great spectacular drama were distributed throughout the city, engaged in the delightful employment of inspecting the circus-bills, appearing on stores and fences, and delay in the beginning of the performance was feared. By the active efforts of Sergeant-at-arms Peck, a sufficient number was assembled in Commons Hall at 10 a. m., to enable Manager Cowles to commence.)

The Convention was called to order at 10 A. M.

The Journal of the preceding day was read, compared with the report of the North Carolinian, as usual, corrected, and approved.

(Advice to the exquisite young gentleman, who splits his hair in the middle, known as the Reading Clerk:

"Dont like a lecturer or tragic star,
Try so hard to roll the British R.")

Messrs. Dowd, of Edgecombe, Rose, of Rowan, and Read, of Warren, were granted leaves of absence.

Mr. Rodman presented a memorial from John Roberts, praying for a divorce. Referred.

Hood, nigger, of Cumberland, presented a report from the committee to increase the number of Radical voters in the State, otherwise known as the committee on Political Disabilities, asking that the delegates would furnish the names of those whom they think entitled to relief.

Mr. Durham, moved to lay on the table, and demanded the ayes and noes. The call was sustained and the motion lost by a vote of 89 to 11.

Hood, nigger, moved the adoption of the report, and called for the previous question.

Mr. Durham said: "Yes there goes another ungentlemanly call for that infamous gag law."

The call for the previous question was sustained, and the report adopted—ayes 97, noes 9.

Mr. Morton, of Stanly, offered a resolution instructing that a copy of the relief bill be sent to Sheriffs and Clerks of Courts in each county.

The rules were suspended and the resolution adopted.

On motion, the vote upon the report of the Committee on Finance, in regard to Mr. Welker's ordinance, in relation to Bank liabilities, was reconsidered, and on motion of Mr. Welker the ordinance was placed on the calendar as new business.

Harris, nigger, of Wake, moved to reconsider the vote upon the resolution providing for an afternoon session, which was agreed to. He then moved to amend by striking out "4 o'clock" and inserting "7½ o'clock, P. M."

Mr. King, of Lenoir, objected to the amendment, preferring the resolution as it stood. The ayes and nays were called on Harris' amendment, and it was lost—ayes 42; nays 58.

The resolution of Mr. Congleton, of Carteret, which provides that a select committee of eight be appointed to confer with Congress, and ask the loan of $10,000,000, to provide homes for the helpless, for educational purposes and the development of agricultural pursuits, was called up for reconsideration.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, favored its adoption, and in the course of his remarks said that in point of intelligence and talents, he would pit Harris, nigger, against Gov. Graham, Gov. Vance, or any other Conservative in the State. He (Mr. McD.) had learned his trade under a negro, and if he were to meet him now, he would give him half—yes, all of his per diem. [Mr. McDonald's present trade is constitution making, and from the clumsy manner in which he does it, we can readily believe his instructor to have been a nigger.]

Mr. Watts, of Martin, moved to amend by striking out "$10,000,000" and inserting "a sufficient amount," and all after the word "loan" down to the word "sum." The whole matter was deferred.

Hood, nigger, asked that it undergo some further amendments, and bo referred to an appropriate committee.

Harris, nigger, was opposed to political or "complexional" legislation—wanted it put on the broad ground of justice and humanity.

Pending the discussion the hour of 12 arrived.

Manager Cowles here announced the following delegates a select committee in relation to the Underdue divorce case: Harris, nigger, of Wake, Merritt and Fisher.

Mr. W. H. S. Sweet—and a sweet one he is, too—by consent, submitted a report from the committee on Legislature, in relation to a former report which was recommitted to them. Ordered to be printed.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The report of the Committee on Executive Department, being the special order, the 1st section was read.

Mr. Durham moved to strike out the words "Lieutenant Governor, Superintendent of Public Works, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Attorney General," and called for the ayes and nays. The call was sustained, the roll called, and the vote stood: yeas, 12; nays, 85.

Mr. Durham moved to strike out "four years" and insert "two" as the term of office. Lost.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, had permission to record his name in the negative on the vote on this question, taken yesterday.

It was moved to strike out the word "the" in 14th line, and insert "this." Carried.

Mr. Ashley called for the previous question on the section as amended.

Mr. Andrews called for the yeas and nays.—Call sustained, roll called and the section adopted by a vote of yeas 77; nays 26.

Mr. Durham moved to amend section 2 so as to require Governor and Lieutenant Governor to have been citizens of the U. S. 20 years, and of the State 5 years, and to be able to read and write. Yeas and nays called—yeas 14; nays 72.

Mr. Holt moved to amend by requiring freehold of the value of $2,000.

Mr. Rich moved to amend by striking out "20" and inserting "10."

Mr. Holt accepted the amendment, whereupon Mr. Rich withdrew it.

Mr. Durham asked for the yeas and nays.—The vote was, yeas 15; nays 82.

Sections 2 and 3 were adopted.

Mr. Graham moved to strike out, in 4th section, the words "and laws," in 5th line.

Mr. Heaton agreed.

Mr. Tourgee objected—was not willing to vote for any man for Governor, who would not swear to support the laws.

Ayes and noes called. Vote stood—ayes 42; noes 54.

Section adopted.

Sections 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 adopted.

Mr. Heaton moved to amend the 10th section by striking out the words "Senators elect" and inserting "Senate," which was agreed to, and the section adopted as amended.

The ayes and noes were denied upon Mr. Graham's call.

Mr. Rich moved to add a new section after section 10, giving the Governor the veto power.

Mr. Heaton opposed any immediate action on the subject, and wanted it fuly considered before action was taken, citing the example of President Johnson.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, was also opposed and said that the vesting of such power in the Governor was contrary to republicanism. He had seen what a terrible, awful thing the VETO sometimes was, and he was "consequently very much opposed to the word in toto."

At this particular stage of the proceedings the tender-hearted member from Martin became deeply affected, and with many tears welling up in his eyes, (like a boarding-school miss crying over the "Sorrows of Werter"), he moved that the proposed section be laid on the table. The manner of the weeping member was irresistible, so the section was tabled. That's Watt's the matter.

Mr. Tourgee,

(Oh, Phoebus, what a name,
To fill the sounding trump of future fame!)

moved to amend the 11th section by striking out in 1st and 24 lines, the words, "by virtue of his office." The amendment of the man with a horrid name, was agreed to, and the section adopted.

In section 12th, Mr. Rodman moved to amend by striking out, in the 1st line, the "impeachment of the Governor," and insert "conviction of the Governor, on impeachment."

Mr. Jones, of Washington, favored the amendment.

Mr. Tourgee was opposed to it.

After a good deal of debate, the amendment was rejected. The section was then adopted.

Sections 13 and 14 adopted.

The 15th section was adopted without amendment.

Mr. Rich moved to amend the 16th section by inserting in the 6th line the word "the" before the word "State." Agreed to, and the section adopted.

Mr. Rich moved to amend sec. 17 by striking out the word "of" before "agricultural," and "of" before "immigration," which was also agreed to, and the section, as amended, was passed.

Mr. Durham moved to insert an additional section as follows:

No person of African descent or of mixed blood, shall be eligible to the office of Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or any other Executive officer.

The ayes and nays were called and resulted in the negative as follows:

Ayes—Messrs. Durham, Ellis, Etheridge, Graham of Orange, Hare, Holt, Lennon, Marler, McCubbins, Merritt, Williams of Sampson—11.

Nays—Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Barnes, Blume, Bradley, Bryan, Carey, Candler, Cherry, Chillson, Congleton, Cox, Dickey, Duckworth, Eppes, Fisher, Forkner, Franklin, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Garland, George, Graham, of Montgomery, Grant, of Wayne, Grant, of Northampton, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, Heaton, Highsmith, Hobbs, Hollowell, Hood, Hyman, Ing, Jones, of Caldwell, Jones, of Washington, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Laflin, Lee, Legg, Logan, Long, Mann, May, Mayo, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, Mullican, Murphy, Nance, Newsom, Nicholson, Parker, Parks, Petree, Pterson, Pool, Ragland, Ray Read, Renfrow, Rhodes, Rich, Rodman, Smith, Stilly, Stilwell, Taylor, Teague, Tourgee, Trogden, Tucker, Turner, Watts, Welker, Williams, of Wake—84.

The President announced the following gentlemen as the committee provided for in the resolution introduced by Harris, nigger, of Wake, for redistricting the State—one from each Congressional District:

First District—Mr. Laflin.
Second District—Mr. Etheridge.
Third District—Mr. Fisher.
Fourth District—Harris, nigger, of Wake.
Fifth District—Mr. Trogden.
Sixth District—Mr. Hobbs.
Seventh District—Mr. Logan.

The Convention then adjourned.

Executive Department.

SECTION 1. The Executive Department shall consist of a Governor, in whom shall be vested the supreme executive power of the State, a Lieutenant Governor, a Secretary of State, an Auditor, a Treasurer, a Superintendent of Public Works, a Superintendent of Public Instruction, and an Attorney General, who shall be elected for the term of four years, by the qualified electors of the State, at the same times and places, and in the same manner, as members of the General Assembly are elected. Their term of office shall commence on the first day of January next after their election, and continue until their successors are elected and qualified; Provided, That the officers first elected shall assume the duties of their office ten days after the approval of the Constitution by the Congress of the United States, and shall hold their offices for four years, from and after the first day of January, 1869.

SEC. 2. No person shall be eligible as Governor, or Lieutenant Governor, unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years; shall have been a citizen of the United States for five years, and shall have been a resident of this State for two years next before the day of election, nor shall the person elected to either of these two offices be eligible to the same office more than four years in any term of eight years, unless the office shall have been cast upon him as Lieutenant Governor, or President of the Senate.

SEC. 3. The return of every election from officers of the Executive Department shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of Government by the returning officers, directed to the Speaker of the House of Commons, who shall open and publish the some in the presence of a majority of the members of both Houses of the General Assembly. The persons having the highest number of votes respectively, shall be declared duly elected; but if two or more be equal and highest in votes for the same office; the one of them shall be chosen by joint ballot of both houses of the General Assembly. Contested elections shall be determined by a joint vote of both Houses of the General Assembly, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 4. The Governor, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall, in the presence of the members of both branches of the General Assembly, or before any Justice of the Supreme Court, take an oath or an affirmation, that he will support the Constitution and Laws of the United States and of the State of North Carolina; that he will faithfully perform the duties pertaining to the office of Governor, to which he has been elected.

SEC 5. The Governor shall reside at the seat of Government of this State, and he shall, from time to time, give the General Assembly information of the affairs of the State, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall deem expedient.

SEC. 6. The Governor shall have power to grant reprieves, commutations, and pardons, after conviction, for all offences, (except in cases of impeachment,) upon such conditions as he may think proper, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law relative to the manner of applying for pardons. He shall annually communicate to the General Assembly each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon granted, stating the name of the convict, the crime for which he was convicted, the sentence and its date, and the date of commutation pardon or reprieve, and the reasons therefor.

SEC. 7. The officers of the Executive Department and of the Public Institutions of the State shall at least five days previous to each regular session of the General Assembly, severally report to the Governor, who shall transmit such reports, with his message, to the General Assembly; and the Governor may, at any time, require information in writing from the officers in the executive department, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective officers, and shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

SEC. 8. The Governor shall be Commander-in-Chief of the militia of the State, except when they shall be called into the service of the United States.

SEC. 9. The Governor shall have power, on extraordinary occasions, by and with the advice of the Council of State, to convene the General Assembly in extra session, by his proclamation, stating therein the purpose or purposes for which they are convened.

SEC. 10. The Governor shall nominate, and, by and with the advice and consent of a majority of the Senators elect, appoint all officers whose offices are established by this Constitution, or which may be created by law, and whose appointments are not otherwise provided for, and no such officer shall be appointed or elected by the General Assembly.

SEC. 11. The Lieutenant-Governor shall, by virtue of his office, be President of the Senate, but shall have no vote unless the Senate be equally divided. He shall, while acting as President of the Senate, receive for his services the same pay which shall, for the same period, be allowed to the Speaker of the House of Commons, and he shall receive no other compensation except when he is acting Governor.

SEC. 12. In case of the impeachment of the Governor, his failure to qualify, his absence from the State, his inability to discharge the duties of his office, or in case the office of Governor shall in anywise become vacant, the powers, duties, and emoluments of the office shall devolve upon the Lieutenant Governor until the disabilities cease, or a new Governor shall be elected and qualified. In every case in which the Lieutenant Governor shall be unable to preside over the Senate, the Senators shall elect one of their own number president of their body; and the powers, duties and emoluments of the office of Governor shall devolve upon him, whenever the Lieutenant Governor shall, for any reason be prevented from discharging the duties of such office as above provided, and he shall continue as acting Governor, until the disabilities be removed or a new Governor or Lieutenant Governor shall be elected and qualified. Whenever, during a recess of the General Assembly, it shall become necessary for a President of the Senate to administer the government, the Secretary of State shall convene the Senate that they may elect such a President.

SEC. 13. The respective duties of the Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Works, Superintendent of Public Instruction and Attorney General shall be prescribed by law. If the office of any of said officers shall be vacated by death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Governor to appoint another until the disabilities be removed or successor be elected and qualified.—Every such vacancy shall be filled by election at the first general election that occurs more than thirty days after the vacancy has taken place, and the person chosen shall hold the office for the remainder of the unexpired term fixed in the first section of this article.

SEC. 14. The Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Works and Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall constitute, ex-officio, the Council of State, who shall advise the Governor in the execution of his office, and three of whom shall constitute a quorum; their advice and proceedings, in this capacity, shall be entered in a journal, to be kept for this purpose exclusively, and signed by the members present, against any part of which any member may enter his dissent, and such journal shall be placed before the General Assembly when called for by either House. The Attorney General shall be, ex-officio, the legal adviser of the Executive Department.

SEC. 15. The officers mentioned in this article shall, at stated periods, receive for their services a compensation to be established by law, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the time for which they shall have been elected; and the said officers shall receive no other emolument or allowance whatever.

SEC. 15. There shall be a seal of the State, which shall be kept by the Governor, and used by him, as occasion may require, and shall be called "the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina." All grants and commissions shall be issued in the name, and by the authority of the State of North Carolina, sealed with "the Great Seal of State," signed by the Governor, and countersigned by the Secretary of State.

SEC. 17. There shall be established in the office of Secretary of State, a Bureau of statistics of agriculture and of immigration, under such regulations as the General Assembly may provide.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.

SENATE—A petition from the Arkansas Convention asking power to remove State officers, stating that high officials were enemies to the country, was presented. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

A petition from Chas. Snyder and one hundred and fifty other negroes of North Carolina, asking aid to emigrate to Liberia, was referred to the Finance Committee.

The bill sending one or more officers to represent the Government in the Maratime expedition at Harve, passed. Two finance bills were reported. Adjourned.

HOUSE—The bill relative to the rights of American citizens abroad resumed.

The Army appropriation to the amount of thirty-three millions reported. Discussion developed the fact that the total appropriations for fiscal years 1868-'69, is about two hundred and seventy-six millions, including twenty-five millions for soldiers and sailors.

The appropriation for the Military Academy considered. An amendment providing that no portion of it be paid to any cadet from a State of which he is not a resident was defeated.

An amendment, confining pay to white cadets, was defeated.

The bill was then passed.

The civil appropriation bill resumed. The Committee reported 1,725,000 as necessary. No action taken. Adjourned.

OUR NOON DISPATCHES.

Bank Failure.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 7.

Much excitement here over failure of Gayoso Savings Bank, which was a depository for the working people. A party went in search of the cashier with a rope, but failed to find him. Another officer of the bank was shot at.

Attempt to kill the King of Portugal.

LISBON, Feb. 7.

A party on the road side fired at the King and Queen without doing their majesties injury. The guard returned the fire, killing and wounding a number.

Shipwrecks.

HAVANA, Feb. 7.

The Steamer Nightengale foundered at sea; seven persons were drowned, but all the officers were saved. The Barque Bienville from New Orleans went ashore and is a total wreck. All hands and a part of the cargo saved.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7, M.

Mr. Thornton, the newly arrived British Minister, was presented to the President to-day.—Speeches most complimentary and cordial were mutually made, without pointed allusion to pending questions between the respective governments.

Impeachment gossip is revived, and the matter is becoming serious.

OUR MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.

Senate—General business unimportant. The supplemental tenure of office bill passed. It provides that ten days after its passage, no general or special agent of the President, the Departments, Bureau or branches, unless authorized by statute specifying duty and compensation, shall be appointed, commissioned, employed or continued in office, except five special agents of the State department. Revenue agents, or inspectors of internal revenue, authorized by acts of Congress of March 3rd, 1863, June 13th, 1864, and March 3rd, 1865, or any other general or special agent commissioned and compensated by law shall continue ten days from its passage, when the President shall appoint, and the Senate confirm their successors.

The President may appoint with the consent of the Senate twenty-five general agents; the Secretary of the Treasury Department may appoint twenty-five detectives in the old manner; the Postmaster General may appoint certain route agents and twenty-five special agents.

The bill authorizing a bridge over the Mississippi at La Crosse passed, and the Senate adjourned.

House—Several members made personal explanations when the House went into a committee on the appropriation bill. A proposition authorizing the Secretary of War to replace the Capitol police by a detail of soldiers was ruled out of order. The discussion on the appropriation bill was stormy, and the House adjourned without action.

Virginia Convention.

RICHMOND, Feb. 7.

In the Convention a substitute for a section in the Ordinance on the Executive, requiring the office of Secretary of State, State Treasurer and Auditor to be filled by the popular vote, was defeated. Ayes 36; noes 54.

A section was then adopted allowing the Legislature to fill these offices.

In the Circuit Court to-day the Judge decided that the attachment of Chaffin & Co., New York, for $48,000, on which Stienbeck & Co. here were closed, was not made on sufficient cause and should be abated.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.

Dickens visited the President to-day.

The committee on Southern Railroads reports the amounts expended on the roads while under the control of the military, at forty-five millions of dollars. The value of the property sold, belonging to the various roads, was seven millions; unpaid 1st January, five and a half millions; total value of property restored seventy-eight millions. The report takes the ground that the Government obtained a clear title to the roads, and that their restoration by the President was illegal and invalid. The committee in conclusion ask the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the committee on Judiciary be instructed to report a resolution declaring in substance, that no claim shall be entertained by any officer or department of the Government, in favor of any railroad or railroad company in any of the late rebel States, or favor any such State for the use of any such road or rolling stock, or other railroad property, or for transportation of troops, government property or passengers, or mails for any portion of time during the late rebellion, or prior to restoration of any such roads to original owners after the cessation of hostilities.

Resolved, That the Committee on Judiciary be hereby instructed to report a joint resolution requiring strict accountability from all railroads in the late rebel States, and that they be compelled to liquidate their indebtedness upon the terms now granted, without consideration or recognition in the least degree of any claims for use or damages by occupation of the United States, to the end that payments shall be enforced according to existing bonds, or, in default thereof, the government shall exercise its legal rights of possession and disposal.

At the Cabinet meeting to-day, all the members appeared except McCulloch and Stanton. The argument ex-parte, in case of McCardle is concluded. Decision withheld.

Bingham and Boutwell of the sub-committee on Reconstruction will report to the committee on the legality of the President's order forbidding Grant to obey Stanton.

The Post Office Department has ordered the transmission of mails to and from Washington and New Orleans via Louisville, Ky.

Georgia Convention, &c.

ATLANTA, Feb. 7.

The report of the Committee on Executive Department was adopted without amendment. It fixes the term of office at four years, and requires ten years residence in the State as a qualification.

The 1st section of the Franchise Committee's report was adopted. A motion to strike out six and insert twelve months residence in the State was lost. Thirty days residence in the county from which elected passed as a qualification.

The Convention adopted the report of the Committee on the death of C. C. Richardson. His remains left at 6 o'clock this evening for Maine. Timony, his slayer, has been held to bail in bonds of $12,000.

Florida Convention.

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 7.

The minority of the Convention still in secret session. Having adopted the Constitution, they are awaiting instructions from Gen. Meade before adjourning. The majority refuse to recognize the acts of the minority, or admit British subjects or non-residents to seats in Convention. The majority consists of four negroes and 21 whites, all eligible. The minority consists of 21 members, of which one is a colored British subject, and three non-residents. Of the balance, fifteen or sixteen are negroes. The President of the Convention and Chairman of the Committee on Eligibility and Elections are included in the minority. The President rules that foreigners and non-residents are eligible to seats and refuses an appeal from his decision without a two-thirds vote, which enables the minority to govern the Constitution.

South Carolina Convention.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 7.

The Convention passed nine more sections of the bill of rights.

Change in Commanders.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 7.

It is rumored that Gen. Canby is to take the place of Gen. Meade, and that Sickles will return to this District.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

The Seaboard Inland Air Line, Via Portsmouth, Va., is now prepared to ship Spirits Turpentine to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, its steamers having bern arranged for that purpose.

This Air Line Route, from the fact of its avoiding transshipment from one Steamer to another, to which other lines are subject, and being the direct line between the Carolinas and the Northern Cities, with daily communication to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and to Boston a Steamer every five days, offers great facilities for shipping, and is in advance of all other routes from three to five days and at as low rates.

In shipping from the Northern Cities, or from Carolina, be careful to ship via Portsmouth, and by the Steamship Lines connecting with and forming part of this Route.

From Boston, Merchants and Miner's Line, E. Sampson, Agent, end Central Wharf.

From New York, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Pier 37, North river, M. L. McCready President, Office 187 Greenwich street.

From Philadelphia, Clyde Steamers, 14 South Delaware Avenue, W. P. Clyde, Agent.

Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, J. L. Wilson, Agent.

All claims for loss, damage, or overcharge, promptly settled by applying to

JAS. McCARRICK, Trace Agent,
Seaboard Inland Air Line, Portsmouth, Va.

The Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and Bay Line, having been consolidated under one Management from Weldon to Baltimore, offer greater facilities to shippers of freight to and from Baltimore than any other line, and guarantees safety of freight and prompt settlement of all claims.

THE

NORTH CAROLINIAN,

A DAILY,

Democratic Newspaper,

PUBLISHED AT

RALEIGH, N. C.

W. A. HEARNE, JOHN W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment. Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

Will contain the freshest News, by telegraph and otherwise. Full reports of all Legislative Assemblies will be furnished its readers.

Particular attention will be paid to State news, and each number will contain a complete epitome of every incident reported in the State press.

MARKETS will be carefully reported.

The Weekly North Carolinian

Is the largest and handsomest paper in the State and will be filled with choice family reading and selected literary matter.

Raleigh, Saturday, February 8, 1868.

☞ The North Carolinian is published every morning in the building North-East corner of Fayetteville and Hargett Streets—up stairs.

☞ Entrance under the sign of Nichols, Gorman & Neathery, Book and Job Printers.

A CORRECTION.

A slight verbal error occurred in our report of the proceedings of the Convention of white men, held here on Wednesday and Thursday. In the third section of the declaration of principles adopted by the Convention, and in the next to the last line of that section, occur the words, "every proper measure." Corrected, as presented and accepted, they should read, "every proper means."

CITY AND STATE.

The Banner Counties.

The official return of the votes cast in the election for a Convention on the 19th and 20th of November last, as reported by Gen. Canby to the kangaroos, shows the fact that there were but two counties in the State in which majorities were given against the Convention. These were Orange and Currituck.

For Hungry Men.

The Local of the Wilmington Star, noticing the opening of the new hotel, goes into rhapsodies over the announcement that the bill of fare comprised thirty six different dishes.

We invite our confrere to visit Raleigh and stop with us at Blair's. His bill of fare is so long that it requires a whole day for some of the Radical delegates, who read very slowly, to decide what they want for breakfast.

A New Paper.

Messrs. J. W. Albright and Bro. have revived the publication of the Greensboro' Times, which was discontinued at the outbreak of hostilities in 1861. The first number of the new volume reached us yesterday. It is very handsome in typographical appearance, and displays tact and talent in its editorials. The Times contains a biographical sketch of its founder, the gallant Lieut. Col. C. C. Cole, written by Gen. W. L. Scott, of Greensboro.

Sermon to Young Men.

Rev. T. H. Pritchard, at the request of the Young Men's Christian Association of this City, will deliver a sermon to young men, at the Baptist Church, Sabbath evening, 9th of February, 1868.

This is the first of a series of sermons to young men, to be delivered at the solicitation of the Association, on the evening of the second Sabbath in each month by the different ministers of the City in turn.

Let the Shoemaker Stick to his Last.

Johnny McDonald, the "ginger-cake and candy" delegate from Chatham, says that he learned his trade under a nigger. We have no doubt of the truthfulness of "Mack's" statement, and, judging from his manner of manipulating constitutional resolutions, &c., we take it that he is a cobbler professionally. If such be the case, we would commend to his careful consideration the old Latin adage: Ne sutor ultra crepidam, which, in plain English, means: "Let the shoemaker stick to his last." Verb sap sat.

Exquisitely Ironical.

A correspondent of the Standard, signing himself "Mountaineer," after lauding Mr. John A. McDonald, the amiable gorilla from the "tooral" rural districts of Chatham, for his efforts to relieve the people, closes his communication by expressing a desire to see his services rewarded, and suggests his election to Congress as a proper return for his labors. Gracious! just fancy the picture! Old "ginger cakes" in the National Legislature, with a constitutional question under discussion. How lonely "Mack" would feel, and how he would sigh for the hills of old Chatham again.

Canine.

We learn that the Honorable H. Eppes, the illustrious Ethiopian who represents the county of Halifax in the Zany and Zebra Convention, having replenished his exhausted exchequer with an installment of mileage at the National Bank, proceeded forthwith to a jewelry establishment in this city. It seems that our sable statesman, after mature cogitation, had sagely concluded that it illy befitted the dignity of one who had (like Cincinnatus) relinquished the plough with reluctance, to serve his bleeding country in a nobler capacity, to carry, as heretofore—unvarnished and unadorned—the rough hickory stick, by which he steadied his stately steps to "the archives of gravity." He therefore requested, with becoming stateliness of manner and courtliness of diction, that his cane be mounted with silver, curiously embossed, and that his name should be elegantly engraved thereon.

Just here, a difficulty arose—the insuperable, embarrassing perplexity of spelling his own name! In vain did the puzzled parliamentarian, removing his greasy chapeau, resort to President Cowles' unfailing expedient of "hunting his own ground." The more thoroughly the wool was manipulated by the claws of the gifted Gorilla, the greater, alas! was the wool-gathering—the tighter the twist of its tangle. How Eppes got out of the bother—whether he spelt it with a K or not, we are not informed. We trust, however, that that eminent orthoepist, James Font Taylord, Esq., will help Eppes out of his trouble—and that the cane, with the true name of its distinguished owner may be transmitted as a relic to be laid up by Joseph William, custodian of "de archives."

The Winston Sentinel exposes the corruption of a certain Dr. Johnson, Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue in that district. The said Johnson had had Mr. J. T. Matthews arrested for fraudulent returns. The case came up before the U. S. Commissioner, on Friday, D. H. Starbuck, Esq., District Attorney, appearing for the prosecution. Mr. Matthews introduced Mr. I. G. Lash and nine other gentlemen of the vicinity, who swore that Johnson, who was the main witness for the prosecution, was "corrupt and open to bribery in his official capacity—that he violated the law himself and induced others to do so." The case was dismissed. The "truly loyal" assessor will be immediately recommended for promotion. The characteristics developed on this trial should have secured him a seat among the Congoes at the capitol.

The citizens of Forsythe held a public meeting in Winston, on Saturday, to devise means to secure a Railroad from that place to some point on the N. C. Road. The Sentinel of that town states that the meeting was a very large one and was composed of the "solid men" of the county. From the indications, it thinks that the county will vote a subscription of $100,000, which will be increased by private efforts to $200,000.

Forty persons, from Yadkin, Forsythe and Davie, left High Point Sunday night for Missouri. We deprecate the prevalence of the idea that North Carolina is not good enough for a home for her children. Redeemed from Radical rule, as she will be soon, we hope, there is not a fairer region beneath the sun.

A bill is before the Ohio Legislature to prohibit the Railroads from issuing free passes to State officers, members of the Legislature, Judges of the Supreme Court and Editors of newspapers.

Col. Mosby, the agent at Warrenton, for the "United States Immigration Company," of New York, has just received another squad of foreign laborers for farmers in Fauquier and Culpeper counties, Va.

The Memphis Avalanche notices the arrival in that city of Admiral Semmes, who has been having a succession of ovations in Kentucky, "justly due so distinguished and historic an officer."

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.

Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where bilious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address G. W. DEEMS,

Song.

Go lovely rose!
Tell her that wastes her time and me,
That now she knows,
When I resemble her to thee,
How sweet and fair she seems to be.

Tell her, that's young,
And shuns to have her graces spied,
That, had'st thou sprung
In deserts, where no men abide,
Thou must have uncommended died.

Small is the worth
Of beauty from the light retir'd
Bid her come forth,
Suffer herself to be desir'd
And not blush so to be admir'd.

Then die! that she
The common fate of things rare
May read in thee,
How small a part of time they share
That are so wondrous, sweet and fair?

Yet though thou fade,
From thy dead leaves let fragrance rise;
And teach the maid,
That goodness Time's rude hand defies;
That Virtue lives, when Beauty dies.

Lessons from an Old Merchant.

That veteran and honorable merchant, Jonathan Sturges of New York, at the dinner given in his honor on the occasion of his retirement from active business, gave the following golden counsel to young men:

"Now, gentlemen, since there is nothing that I can talk about that you do not understand better than I do, I propose to say a few words for the benefit of the young men outside, and if you approve of what is said, let it be considered as said by this Grand Jury of Merchants now assembled.

One of the first lessons I received was in 1813, when I was eleven years of age. My grand father had collected a fine flock of merino sheep, which were carefully cherished during the war of 1812 and 1815. I was a shepherd boy, and my business was to watch the sheep in the fields. A boy, who was more fond of his books than of sheep was sent with me, but left the work to me, while he lay in the shade and read his books. I finally complained of this to the old gentleman. I shall never forget his benignant smile as he replied: 'Never you mind, if you watch the sheep, you will have the sheep.' I thought to myself, what does the old gentleman mean? I don't expect to have any sheep. My aspirations were quite moderate in those days, and a first rate merino buck was worth $1000. I could not make out exactly what he meant, but I had great confidence in him, as he was a judge, and had been to Congress in Washington's time; so I concluded that it was all right, whatever he meant, and went out contentedly with the sheep. After I got to the field I could not get the idea out of my head. Finally I thought of my Sunday school lesson: 'Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make the ruler over many things.' Then I understood it: Never you mind who else neglects his duty; be you faithful and you will have your reward! I do not think it will take many lads as long as it took me to understand this proverb.

I received my second lesson after I came to this city, as a clerk to the late Luman Reed. A merchant from Ohio, who knew me, came to purchase from Mr. Reed. He expressed his gratification at finding me there, and said to me: 'You have got a good place—make yourself so useful that they cannot do without you.' I took his meaning quicker than I did the proverb about the sheep. Well, I worked upon these two ideas until Mr. Reed offered me an interest in his business.

The first morning after the copartnership was announced, Mr. James Geery, the old tea merchant, called to see me: 'You are all right now; I have one word of advice to give you: be careful who you walk the streets with.' That was lesson number three.

In this connection I must repeat an anecdote told of the late Robert Lennox. A country merchant came into the store of Mr. Morton, a highly respectable Scotch merchant, to purchase goods. He spoke about credit, references, &c. Mr. Morton said: 'I will give you what credit you wish.' 'But,' said the merchant, 'I am an entire stranger to you.' Mr. Morton replied: 'Did I not see you at church with Robert Lennox?' 'Yes, I was at church with him.' 'Well, I will trust any man whom Robert Lennox will take to church with him.'

I hope these three lessons of watchfulness over the interests of their employers, watchfulness over their partner's interests and their own, after they are joined, followed by intense watchfulness that no black sheep creep into their folds, may be impressed by these anecdotes upon the minds of those for whom they are intended.

One other lesson I feel it very necessary to inculcate—that of patience.

With a little patience most young men will find a position as high as they have fitted themselves to fill.

In all the changes which have taken place in my firm since 1822, no partner has been brought in who has not served as a clerk in the establishment. And I now leave my house well organized, prosperous, and free from complications, still in the hands of those who have served in it as clerks for a longer or shorter period. I mention this as an encouragement to young men to persevere in the faithful performance of their duties."

Concerning Notable Editors of New York City.

The New York correspondent of the Raleigh Register furnishes that paper with the following items of information, respecting several of the editorial celebrities of Gotham:

Thurlow Weed, now in his seventy-second year, will certainly retire from the Commercial Advertiser and from public life after the Presidential election. He is very rich, probably worth $3,000,000, and will publish his "Reminiscences" after his retirement. The volumes will be larger and more numerous, I suspect, than those of the American Cyclopædia; but they will be very interesting, for he has been in political life for half a century, and been one of the powers of the nation.

Rumors of changes in the Herald are still circulated. The elder Bennett is about seventy-five, and, having discovered that his son is incapable of managing the concern, does not know what disposition to make of it. He is worth about $3,000,000, and has but two children; so the best thing he could do would be to put his estate in more substantial shape by disposing of the paper that has had power and influence only through him.

Horace Greeley will die in the harness of the Tribune. He is only fifty-five, and has twenty years' good and hard work in him yet. He owns ten shares of the Tribune, worth $60,000, and has made $50,000 or $60,000 from his "American Conflict." He is in excellent health; has an easy conscience and a goood income. What needs he more?

Reading and Knowing.

Read and do; read and practice what you read, or else your reading will do you no good. He that hath a good book in his hand, but not a lesson of it in his heart or life, is like the ass that carries rich burdens and feeds on thistles. In the divine account, a man knows no more than he doeth. Profession, without practice, will but make a man twice-told a child of darkness. To speak well, is to sound like a cymbal; but to do well, is to act like an angel. He that practices what he reads and understands, God will help him to understand what he understands not. John 7: 16, 17. There is no fear of knowing too much, though there is much fear of practicing too little. The most doing man should be the most knowing man.—Brooks.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATAORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

The Seaboard Inland Air Line, Via Portsmouth, Va., is now prepared to ship Spirits Turpentine to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, its steamers having bern arranged for that purpose.

This Air Line Route, from the fact of its avoiding transshipment from one Steamer to another, to which other lines are subject, and being the direct line between the Carolinas and the Northern Cities, with daily communication to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and to Boston a Steamer every five days, offers great facilities for shipping, and is in advance of all other routes from three to five days and at as low rates.

In shipping from the Northern Cities, or from Carolina, be careful to ship via Portsmouth, and by the Steamship Lines connecting with and forming part of this Route.

From Boston, Merchants and Miner's Line, E. Sampson, Agent, end Central Wharf.

From New York, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Pier 37, North river, M. L. McCready President, Office 187 Greenwich street.

From Philadelphia, Clyde Steamers, 14 South Delaware Avenue, W. P. Clyde, Agent.

Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, J. L. Wilson, Agent.

All claims for loss, damage, or overcharge, promptly settled by applying to
JAS. McCARRICK, Trace Agent,
Seaboard Inland Air Line, Portsmouth, Va.

The Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and Bay Line, having been consolidated under one Management from Weldon to Baltimore, offer greater facilities to shippers of freight to and from Baltimore than any other line, and guarantees safety of freight and prompt settlement of all claims.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinnated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.
Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.
THOMAS THORN.
Greene county, August 14, 1867.

ROSADALIS IS A POTENT REMEDY IN ALL CHRONIC DISEASES.

From G. W. Blount, Esq., Attorney at Law, Wilson, N. C.

I have been cured of Chronic Inflamation of the ear and Partial Deafness, of ten years' standing, by ROSADALIS. GEO. W. BLOUNT.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE VERY WORST CASES OF CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's ROSADALIS.
JAMES WILLS.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumption. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of l fe retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pill, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantages in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. When these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address
